

COUGHS COLD CURED Or Your Money Back.

SUSAN J. LAWRENCE'S WILD CHERRY COUGH SYRUP

—Different from any cough or cold cure in existence. A peculiar formula which acts like magic in stopping coughs, curing colds, alleviating inflammation. Results are so certain a cure is guaranteed. 1000 testimonials.

At Druggists, Grocers: 25cts.

VERMONT LOCAL NEWS

(Continued from third page.)

in honor of her approaching marriage. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening spent by all. Miss Gertrude Donovan, who has been teaching in Milton, is now at home for a few weeks' vacation. Mrs. Snyder went last week to New York—Schools in town closed Friday. The primary department of M. L. A. closed Friday for two weeks' vacation. Miss Grace Rockwell of Plattsburgh was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Robinson, Sunday. Clifford Terrell spent Sunday in Burlington. The Rev. G. W. Perry preached at the Congregational Church Sunday. Sidney Phelps and George Tracy visited the Legislature last week.

NORTH HERO.

Sydney Nichols is ill with typhoid fever. Miss Albee Pease spent a few days in Alburgh, the guest of Miss Mabel Hazen. Mr. and Mrs. W. Donaldson are in Waterbury, called there by the illness of their sister, G. K. Tidhous of Boston is here visiting relatives and friends.

GRAND ISLE.

Dr. G. H. Branch has gone to New York to attend a medical convention and intends to return by New Haven to witness the football game between Harvard and Yale. Miss Martha Young has gone to her home from the Island Villa. The Friday night club will meet at H. C. Griswold's on the evening of the 18th. Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Wilma Watson, who spent the summer at Wilmore, Tidhous, to Fred Knight of North Hero. H. W. Ladd and son, Arthur, spent a few days last week hunting in the Adirondacks. They report a good time and brought home some muskrat. Mrs. Arthur Ladd and daughter, Mildred, are recovering from their recent illness. Mrs. Winch of Holyoke, Mass., is visiting her brother and her mother, Mrs. Martha Ladd. Miss Elizabeth Griswold is quite ill. Mrs. Hannah Macomber is visiting in Chazy, N. Y., for a few days. The students of the Grand Isle high school will give an entertainment on the night of December 8. Come and see. Village School of Long Ago.

ALBURGH SPRINGS.

William Niles, an aged citizen of this place, died at his home after a long illness. The funeral was held on Sunday at the Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Guest of Claremont was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. R. Hathaway of Burlington were guests of J. P. Ladd over Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Kibler will move this week to Westford, where he has a charge in the Congregational Church of that place. Mr. Kibler and family will be missed in town. Mr. J. Niles of Montpelier is in town on business this week. The ladies of the Methodist Church hold a fair at the Congregational church on the 17th and 18th. Refreshments will be served both evenings. Dr. Rogers goes to New York to attend the meeting of the railroad surgeons this week. Dr. S. Harvey is back from New York.

ISLE LA MOTTE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Thomas have gone to Bloomsfield, N. J., for the winter. Mrs. L. J. Sowles has returned to Chazy, N. Y. Mrs. N. W. Plisk has returned from London. Miss Londa Lengfeld spent Sunday in Burlington. William Naylor is soon to take possession of the store and post office in Chazy. A. E. Gull of Buffalo, N. Y., was at A. K. Thomas's Saturday. Ransom Hall is still confined to the house. Mrs. Helena Tenny has returned from Rouses Point.

LAMOILLE COUNTY

JEFFERSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reynolds have gone to spend a week with friends in Danville. Mrs. Aurilla Edwards has returned from Boston. Mrs. Ross, who spent the past week at Fred Rogers's, has returned to her home in Barre. Miss Pearl Morse has gone to Boston to study music. Mrs. Mary A. Raymore, who has been in feeble health for a long time, does not improve. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wood spent several days in Montpelier last week. The colonial fair by the Cemetery association at Hotel Melendy was a success financially and socially and $40 was raised for further improvements which are being directed by Superintendent W. W. Raymore. Frank Powell and family have moved to Berkshire, where he has taken a large farm. Mrs. Abbie W. Hodges, who spent the summer at the White Mountain, N. H., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whitcomb. A. A. Hawley and wife have recently returned from a visit to their sons, Henry, in Belmont, N. H., and Fred, in Nashua, N. H.—Samuel Stanley of Waterbury has rented and moved to the Charles farm. Edwin York has moved from In. J. J. to J. M. Wilcox's tenement near the mill. The senior and junior classes of Jeffersonville high school will present the comedy in four acts entitled "Our Jim" at the town hall Friday evening, November 18.

WATERSVILLE.

Mrs. Gertrude Scott called on old friends in town Friday. Frank Hurrell and family have moved into Edward Leach's tenement. Lewis Russell has finished his work at Cloverdale and returned home. The village schools closed Friday and Saturday, respectively. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Mead the lecture did not take place at Union Church last Friday evening as advertised. The Rev. H. Howard occupied the pulpit last Sunday in the place of the Rev. R. E. Freeman and administered the communion. What might have been a serious conflagration at the box shop last Thursday was prevented by the timely intervention of George Rogers. Miss Gertrude Wilbur is spending several days in town.

HYDE PARK.

The red snow peaked this village Friday at the death of Leon, second son of Annie and Martha Davis. Although Mr. Davis had been a sick about a month, the news was so unexpected that it came suddenly without warning of heart.

ORLEANS COUNTY

DERBY.

Fletcher and Frank Niles are at home from the St. Louis exposition. Mr. and Mrs. George Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rickard, and the young women, who were in St. Louis, returned last Friday night. S. B. Bates and his mother, Mrs. Kate Bates, left last week for the exposition. The graded school in this village closed last Friday evening with a promenade given by the students in the 9th grade. Capt. and Mrs. H. Holbrook left last Friday night for Santa Anna, California, where they will spend the winter. They will visit friends in Manchester, N. H., and stop at St. Louis on their journey. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenness are moving back to their farm in Holland. Mrs. C. H. Bates and Edith left for New York with the young women, who have not fully recovered from the effects of the severe burns she received last summer. Mrs. Sanford Pinney and daughter, Bertha, are in Chicago. Levi Kelly of Holland is moving into the house he has bought in the village. The new chimney at the Congregational Church seems to solve the problem of the smoky furnace for the present. The church has been furnished with new lights and a nice plan, also, for evening service and Sunday school use which all add greatly to the pleasure and comfort of the congregation. The Willing Workers sale takes place December 2. Friends to help and evening. Mr. E. O. Silver and family expect to return to New Jersey for the winter this week. The Baptists expect to occupy their new vestry for services very soon and the Methodists are pushing forward repairs on their church as fast as possible. Frank Niles expects to return to his work next week and Jasper Rickard has so far recovered his health as to be able to return to Higgles, Maine. The latest accounts from Mrs. Myron Adams, who has been in a hospital in Portland, Me., for treatment are very encouraging. It is hoped she will be able to return home in time with health much improved.

NORTH TROY.

Ray Bowen has moved into E. O. Hadlock's tenement on Railroad street. He was recently visited by Mrs. Arvesta Baker. Mrs. Arabella Armitage went Monday to New York city to visit relatives. Basket ball is being played by some of the young people. Dr. Arthur Moore is very sick. A child of mother here procuring to be shipped to the orphanage at Poughkeepsie, to be used as Christmas tree.

ALBANY.

Miss E. M. Mitchell has gone to Danbury, P. Q., for a short visit. Guess Sargent is in town. Henry Davis is moving on the George Walker farm. Mr. James Crawford and wife have moved from West Derby back to their farm. The young people gave Andrew Rogers and wife a reception Tuesday evening the 15th. The proceeds at the Congregational Church the 8th was $20.00.

LOWELL.

Thomas Gelo has rented his farm for one year to his son, Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gelo has returned from Ayer, Mass. William Shortleaves of Malone, N. Y., is in town. Mrs. Thomas Gelo will visit her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Reynolds, of Ayer, Mass., this winter. The vote November 8 was: Republican, 12; Democrat, 2; prohibition, 1. E. J. Ibrahim, M. Hines and P. B. Lambert were in Montpelier last week. The town voted November 8 to buy the Baptist Church for a town hall; consideration $60. Blake Aldrich, an aged man, fell from the steps of G. E. Curtis's store Tuesday and broke one of his hips.

NEWPORT.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kim on Thursday, November 10. Mrs. Jules Collier died at her daughter's home, Col. on Eastern avenue on Monday night, November 7. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon with the burial in the cemetery at West Derby, by the side of her late husband. The many friends of Saphrona Buline Young will be pained to learn of her sudden death on Wednesday, November 10, at her son's home in West Derby, England. Although she has been failing since her return from Huron, South Dakota, where she spent a year with her son, Charles, she was not considered seriously ill until the last few days. She and her late husband, Peter Young, lived together nearly 50 years and most of that time in New York, Vermont, and Charleston. There are two daughters, Mrs. Mae A. Young of West Derby and Mrs. E. W. Barrow of Barton and two sons, Charles E. Young of Huron, South Dakota, and James E. Young of Brownston that survive her. She was 74 years old. Her funeral was held at her daughter's home in West Derby, November 10, with the burial in the cemetery in West Derby. D. W. Sisco is getting the lumber on his lot in preparation to build a new steam laundry at the end of the long bridge.

ORANGE COUNTY

RANDOLPH.

At the Grange meeting held in Grange hall Saturday evening there was a very good attendance. The lecture's programme, which was in charge of Mrs. G. C. Flint, was as follows: Reading, Mrs. E. L. Bass; recitation, Mrs. W. G. Avery; A Talk on the Doings of the St. Louis Exposition, Representative Don H. Morse; reading, Mrs. F. Snow; A Talk on What I Saw at the St. Louis Fair, Mrs. L. P. Thayer; reading, Miss Winifred Mann. The stock shipment from this station Monday consisted of 12 hogs 20 calves and 10 cattle. The price paid per pound for live hogs was 44 cents and for calves 5 cents. A very pleasant reception was tendered Monday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Flint, who were married about three weeks ago, at their home in East Brainerd. About 50 friends were present and were received by Mr. and Mrs. Flint and Mrs. C. J. Rumer. Quite a number from this village attended the reception. The Co-operative Creamery during the month of October made 23,000 pounds of butter and paid patrons for $2,000 pounds of butter fat, receipts for butter $5,683 and paid patrons $1,623; patrons received 25 cents net per pound for butter fat. The cost of making was two cents per pound. The Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Howe have closed their house on Prospect avenue and left Monday for Southern Pines, N. C., where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. John Mead and two children and Miss Anna Mead left yesterday for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend the winter.

BRADFORD.

Dr. W. E. Locks has moved into his new house. Glenn Martin is ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Minnie Clement, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peters for some time, has returned to her home in Worcester, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Temple and baby of Boston are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Black. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walker returned from Nova Scotia Sunday, where they have been spending the summer. P. E. Hooley has finished work in Dorr Brothers store and his position is taken by F. A. Walker.

CHELSEA.

A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bowen last week Friday and on Sunday morning last a boy appeared in the family of Charles W. Bacon in the upper village. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Susan Sears accompanied by her niece, Miss Ellen Hatch and friend, Miss Ford came from Jamaica Plain, Mass., and are temporarily staying with Miss Hatch's brother-in-law, Elgin D. Barnes. While he is preparing their house, the former Vincent place, for their occupancy, Mrs. Sears is 27 years old. At public auction last Saturday afternoon the former dwelling place of Orange Denmore at the lower end of the village was sold to his daughter, Mrs. Ellen R. Cleveland, for $125. She is a resident of town on Saturday look for more real estate in which to live as he intends soon to come here and permanently reside. Mrs. Marshall, the mother of Dr. Augustus T. Marshall, who recently succeeded Dr. Story N. Goss came to live with her son on Friday last. Dr. Story's wife and wife have been in the family of Dr. Story's son, Dr. Augustus T. Marshall, who recently succeeded Dr. Story N. Goss came to live with her son on Friday last. Dr. Story's wife and wife have been in the family of Dr. Story's son, Dr. Augustus T. Marshall, who recently succeeded Dr. Story N. Goss came to live with her son on Friday last.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

WATERBURY.

Mrs. Blanchard A. Montgomery died at her home on Main street on Friday night after a painful illness lasting for several weeks. Mrs. Montgomery was born in Payson 36 years ago and was a daughter of Mrs. Caroline Jones. She was married during her childhood. Besides her mother, her husband, D. A. Montgomery, and two children, and a brother and two sisters survive her. The funeral was held at her late home on Main street Monday at twelve o'clock. Mrs. Paul of Morrisville officiating.

NOTICE.

"Ola's Progress in Singing Method," for singing school and private teaching, supplied by Mrs. R. O. Waterbury, N. Y.

WATERBURY CENTER.

Allen Bacon of Hines and Miss Horace Smith and sister of Hines were guests at E. A. Sawmills over Sunday. Miss Lucia Hopkins of Johnson is visiting Mrs. W. J. Danforth. Guy Plisk and family have moved into John Ponce's house. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Emmitt Sawyer last night. Mrs. Ernest Cameron of Danbury was in town Monday.

NORTHFIELD.

A dispatch in the Boston Transcript dated at Washington, November 16, states that the charge against Francis H. Plimley of Northfield has been selected as umpire to settle the French claims against Venezuela that were not adjusted by the mixed commission. Mr. Plimley has been appointed to settle the Venezuela claims against Venezuela that were not adjusted by the mixed commission. Mr. Plimley has been appointed to settle the Venezuela claims against Venezuela that were not adjusted by the mixed commission.

WAITSFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Holden returned last Saturday from a two weeks' trip to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis. The next morning of Mad River Valley Grange has been postponed from Wednesday evening, November 10 to Wednesday evening, November 17, on account of the illness of the chicken pie supper of the Ladies Home circle occurring on the former date, November 10. The young people of the place are arranging for a basket picnic and dance at the L. O. O. F. hall on Wednesday evening, November 17. Mr. Horace C. Van Deusen was in Northfield Thursday. Mrs. Ellen Van Deusen is on the sick list. W. O. Crum found three dandelion blossoms recently. Patrick Hannon died at Rolla, Mo., last Sunday night after an illness of about two weeks. He was 64 years old. The interment was in the Calvary cemetery, Northfield. Mrs. Edson of Brantree is at Walter Edson's to assist in caring for the infant child, which is very sick, but not expected live. O. Bruce of St. Albans is taking the night operator's place at the station, and is boarding at B. E. Shaw's. Mr. Johnson and family of Barre arrived Saturday to make their home on the East Hill, where they will conduct a lumber business. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards recently. Mrs. J. O'Grady's parents in Randolph Center. Lewis Ellis of Old Orchard, Me., spent Sunday with Calvin Ellis and E. H. Ford.

ROXBURY.

F. O. Kennedy and wife of Hancock were in town last week and purchased the house owned by Mrs. U. D. Rice and occupied by Charles Howe. Mrs. E. B. Rice was on the sick list last week. Dr. L. M. Greene of Bethel was in town last week in council with Dr. Merriam on the case of Frank Gushue, who has been so very ill with pneumonia, but is now convalescing. The Rev. L. A. Wilson will preach in East Warren next Sunday evening. H. G. Van Deusen was in Northfield Thursday. Mrs. Ellen Van Deusen is on the sick list. W. O. Crum found three dandelion blossoms recently. Patrick Hannon died at Rolla, Mo., last Sunday night after an illness of about two weeks. He was 64 years old. The interment was in the Calvary cemetery, Northfield. Mrs. Edson of Brantree is at Walter Edson's to assist in caring for the infant child, which is very sick, but not expected live. O. Bruce of St. Albans is taking the night operator's place at the station, and is boarding at B. E. Shaw's. Mr. Johnson and family of Barre arrived Saturday to make their home on the East Hill, where they will conduct a lumber business. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards recently. Mrs. J. O'Grady's parents in Randolph Center. Lewis Ellis of Old Orchard, Me., spent Sunday with Calvin Ellis and E. H. Ford.

SOUTH WOODBURY.

Reuben Goodell, 90 years of age, cast his vote for Roosevelt on election day. His first ballot was cast for Andrew Jackson, at the age of 21, in the same house, and he has voted for every succeeding president. Elbert, son of George Lawson broke his leg above the knee, Monday morning, while at work in the woods. Dr. Hall and Crane reduced the fracture. Mrs. Frank Bletcher is visiting in Burlington and Winoski.

FAYSTON.

Mrs. F. A. Bragg and Miss Anna L. Bragg visited at Orym M. Jones in Warren last week and also attended the chicken pie supper Tuesday evening, given by the Ladies Aid. James M. Thompson of Montpelier and Mrs. Henry Wood of Northfield were in town. Thompson's last week. About 30 members of Mossy Glen Lodge, L. O. G. T. attended the union at Duxbury Wednesday November 10. Mossy Glen, L. O. G. T. installed officers Saturday evening, November 12, as follows: O. T. Dan Thompson of Northfield, secretary, Annie Plisk, F. J. Bennett, Anna Maxwell, treasurer, Archie McCullough, L. C. Clayton, D. M. Edna Bragg; assistant secretary, Cecil Watt; guard, Nellie Cote; sentinel, Gus Colton; chaplain, H. McLaughlin; P. G. T. Ernest Chase. There will be a public meeting at the

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

COLORED DRESS GOODS.

Every lady is interested, vitally, in our Dress Goods offerings at this time. Good dressers will readily see the beauty and excellent values represented in these desirable fabrics.

Yesterday we told you of Black Goods. To-day a few Specials only out of the many handsome effects in Colored Goods are mentioned.

MIXED SUITINGS with overplaid of color—stylish and serviceable—50 inches wide, $1.00.

ENGLISH HOPSACKING a very desirable fabric for Winter wear—50 inches wide—85 CENTS. Reduced from $1.25.

DIAGONAL ARMURE in blue, brown and black—46 inches wide—85 CENTS.

BOUTONNE STRIPED SUITING. Blue and black suiting—50 inches wide—$1.10. Reduced from $1.50.

CANVAS SUITING in green and blue plaid effect—50 inches wide—$1.00.

MIXED SUITING in blue and green combination—52 inches wide—$1.50.

ZIBILINE CLOAKING in dark effects—52 inches wide—$1.95. Reduced from $2.50.

SCOTCH PLAID. A much wanted fabric for separate Skirts and Children's Dresses—50 inches wide—$1.50.

MOHAIR MIXTURES. Blue, brown and black, 45 inches wide—62 CENTS a yard.

COVERT SUITING. A strictly waterproof material for storm garments—54 inches wide—$1.85.

COVERT SUITING in tan, brown and blue mixtures—strictly waterproof—54 inches wide—$1.50.

POLKA DOT ARMURE. Navy, cadet, reseda, cardinal. A material suitable for Children's Dresses—40 inches wide, 50 CENTS.

Free lessons in Art and Oriental Embroidery beginning Monday, November 21st, and continuing through the week. Two sessions daily in our Oriental Rooms, morning and afternoons. These lessons are absolutely free. Full particulars later.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

Axminster Carpets

ROOM LENGTHS—FOR
$1.00 per yard.

As a close-up to our big Carpet Sale we offer four patterns, regular $1.25 goods, beautiful in color and design. This price includes the best wadded lining and making and laying.

W. G. REYNOLDS.

WINDSOR COUNTY

Lodge rooms Saturday evening, November 12, and the children of members will take a part in the programme. All are cordially invited.

MARSHFIELD.

George A. Drew has moved from Wood's mill to his farm in East Cabot. Harlow Folsom had the misfortune to lose his wallet containing $5 between Montpelier and Marshfield. Deputy Sheriff Horton Pike was in Bethel, where he arrested Henry Downey for the alleged larceny of a mileage book and other property belonging to Henry Hildart. Both men were in the employ of Fred Lamberton at the time the deed is said to have been committed. Dr. H. S. Carver is attending special medical meeting in New York city. The parties that are to saw George Hines in Ottawa on Monday, November 15, for the mill-schools closed in town November 14, the teachers having good success. Silas Parker has moved to town.

ROXBURY.

F. O. Kennedy and wife of Hancock were in town last week and purchased the house owned by Mrs. U. D. Rice and occupied by Charles Howe. Mrs. E. B. Rice was on the sick list last week. Dr. L. M. Greene of Bethel was in town last week in council with Dr. Merriam on the case of Frank Gushue, who has been so very ill with pneumonia, but is now convalescing. The Rev. L. A. Wilson will preach in East Warren next Sunday evening. H. G. Van Deusen was in Northfield Thursday. Mrs. Ellen Van Deusen is on the sick list. W. O. Crum found three dandelion blossoms recently. Patrick Hannon died at Rolla, Mo., last Sunday night after an illness of about two weeks. He was 64 years old. The interment was in the Calvary cemetery, Northfield. Mrs. Edson of Brantree is at Walter Edson's to assist in caring for the infant child, which is very sick, but not expected live. O. Bruce of St. Albans is taking the night operator's place at the station, and is boarding at B. E. Shaw's. Mr. Johnson and family of Barre arrived Saturday to make their home on the East Hill, where they will conduct a lumber business. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards recently. Mrs. J. O'Grady's parents in Randolph Center. Lewis Ellis of Old Orchard, Me., spent Sunday with Calvin Ellis and E. H. Ford.

MORETOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Turner attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. June Mayo, one day last week in Northfield. The Rev. E. A. Bishop, the principal of Montpelier Seminary, preached here in the Methodist Church Sunday and in South Duxbury in the afternoon. Senator Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 22. Mrs. Draper of Massachusetts is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brown, for a while. Mrs. Sidney Atkins and Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Waterbury Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lilla Montgomery. The district union of Dillingham will give a lecture here in the church November 2